100 BUFFALO PURCHASED BY KNOTT'S BERRY FARM

One hundred head of buffalo were purchased this week at Independence, Kansas, by Dwight "Andy" Anderson of Knott's Berry Farm.

The animals, part of the world's largest privately owned herd of 350, were raised on Gene Clark's buffalo ranch near Independence. They will be slaughtered and shipped to the farm where the steaks will be served at the Buffalo Steak House. Clark will supply the buffalo over a period of the next four or five months.

Anderson, manager of the steak house, flew to Kansas where he and Clark inspected the herd and chose the animals for the farm. It is believed that this will be the first time choice two and three year old animals were ever slaughtered for commercial meat. Buffalo meat in the past has usually been from old animals sold from herds kept for other purposes than supplying meat.

Clark accompanied Anderson on his return to California. He will advise on the handling of the meat when the first shipment arrives and will be on hand to tell the Buffalo Steak House guests about the ranch from which it came.

Mrs. Madge Lyen visited in her daughter's home, the Frank Mathes', in Hawthorne last Sunday. It was her birthday.

J. E. Smith, 5701 Vonnie Lane, was called to Cushman, Texas, this week. His father was reported as being in very poor health.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Noe flew to Phoenix ,Arizona, last week. There they joined his sister, Mrs. Virgil Moss, and proceeded by car to Oklahoma. They received a message that their aged mother was seriously ill.

Lynx Drop Two Games; Win One

Fresno

The Fresno Rockets took both games from a weary Lynx team last week, but just by the skin of their teeth. In the first game with Alsup on the mound for the Lynx and Huber hurling for the Rockets they found their way home with two runs.

Buena Park loaded the bases with no outs, but failed to push even one run home. The Rockets won 2-0, with both pitchers allowing 7 hits.

Second Game

In a thrilling second game the Lynx met defeat after 14 innings of play when the Rockets scored two in the first and held the Lynx scoreless until the bottom of the seventh, when Mom Moore pounded the horse hide knocking in the tieing runs. Several more scoreless innings followed until the Fresno team rallied with two runs, to win the game 4-2.

Monrovia

Monrovia bowed to the Lynx on the victors diamond here last Sunday night with a score of 4-0. Tommy Slappey pitched a two hit ball game with Bobbie McDaniel catching.

Big stickers for the evening were Doris Ray, Carolyn Broady, Bobbie McDaniels and Pattie Averett.

Lu Mahoney made some outstanding defensive plays on hard hit grounders. The key stone combination of Averett, short stop, and Broady, second base, came through nicely with some good teamwork.

Fete F. Davis On Birthday

Frank Mason Davis, 9031 Watson st., celebrated his birthday this year and his family gave it both barrels. Two pleasant affairs marked the occasion.

On Sunday, the lawn of the Leslie W. Davis home at 8811 La Salle st., was the scene of a picnic dinner. Also present to honor their father were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Davis of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hargis and Teddy of Lakewood, and Mrs. Evelyn Moore and Jim, Tom and Miss Elaine Moore of Covina.

The latter baked the birthday cake which was served in honor of the occasion.

On Monday, which actually marked the birth date, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Moore and their son, Larry, of Anaheim, took Mr. and Mrs. Davis to Crystal Lake, where the group picnicked. A drive through the San Gabriel mountains and a visit to Mt. Baldy rounded out the afternoon.

CHILD BUMPS HEAD

Terry Gasper, 9192 So. Walker st., was injured at 1:24 p.m. Saturday on Lincoln ave. at Walker st. The year-old child received a bump on the head when thrown against the windshield of his father's car as the driver attempted to avoid a collision. He was taken to Artesia hospital.

Crispin Gasper, the baby's father, told officers he applied his brakes to prevent hitting a car which ran a boulevard stop on Lincoln ave.

One of the most widespread, popular, and tasty of fresh water fishes is the walleyed pike. Wherever he exists, in lake or river, he is usually plentiful and ready to take live baits or artificial lures under favorable conditions.

At this season walleyes hug the cool depths, and mainly come inshore after dark in search of minnows, crawfish, and other natural foods. For this reason night fishing often brings the best results.

Where it is legal to do so, you can drift on a quiet night with a lantern over the side of the boat. The light attracts minnows, which in turn bring the walleyes to the surface. There you can catch them by still fishing with minnows or casting streamer flies or small spinners into the edges of the school.

Or if the walleyes are cruising along the rocky and weedy shores, you can spin cast with a 7-foot Golden Rod tubular glass spinning rod and Bradco reel with Skirr nylon spinning line of 6 or 8 pound test and a New Spinning Devon Minnow, Rangley Minnow, or Spin-Queen.

At the same time, with these noted chow hounds grabbing live minnows, you can bait cast with a 5 or 5½ foot Glasslake tubular glass casting rod, or the same length Banshee solid glass casting rod, and a large June Bug Spinner with minnow, angleworm, or pork strip. This is just the ticket for evening casting when the walleyes are crowding the shores.

The same tackle outfit, with a Spin Twirler lure, should be used when you are drift fishing along the edges of the deeply submerged gravel reefs. This may be done during the day, when the water is fairly rough and cool and when there may be a light rain falling. This is good walleye weather, for they like action to their baits and stir about for food on lowery days.

Let Old Hi's free, illustrated booklet "Fishing For The Millions," give you some additional tips on taking summer walleyes. Just send a postcard request to me, in care of this newspaper, and I'll be glad to send you a copy. And if you have any questions on walleyes, or any other fish or type of tackle, just cast it to me and I'll heave back an answer.

If you are headed for salt water fishing thrills this summer, get one of the Sea Master tubular glass salt water spinning rods and you'll improve your catches as well as your sport. This rod has a 6¾ foot tip section, with an overall length of 8½ feet, and may be used for surf casting as well as spinning.

For regular surf casting, though, you would want the Glass Caster, a standard construction rod with a 7-foot tip, overall length of 9½ feet. This is a tubular glass rod that has proven to be a favorite with hundreds of surf casters on both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts.

If you are a surf caster, or general sea fisherman, Old Hi believes you would get a lot of useful information from reading his booklets called "Salt Water Sports Fishing" (covering the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico Coastlines), and "Pacific Coastal Fishing." The latter also describes angling for the different Pacific salmons—now ready and eager to seize your trolled fly, spoon, or live bait in Puget Sound.

Crumes Return From Midwest

Although they thoroughly enjoyed their visit with relatives in the midwest, Mr. and Mrs. John Crume and children Bobby and Donna Mae, could not say their trip was uneventful.

When they were on the highway in Iowa, just 335 miles from their goal which was Minneapolis, Minnesota, an accident occurred on a road shoulder under repair and they were forced to finish the journey by air.

On the way home, a lay-over in Denver allowed the family to visit with his father. John declares he never had a better steak than the one served at dinner that night.

Fred Hutchings recently returned from a plane trip to Calgary, Canada, where he combined business with a visit with his son. Mrs. Hutchings is now visiting in Canada and Detroit. Their daughter, Mrs. Charles Knauss, is expected home from Florida sometime in September. Sgt. Knauss will receive a permanent discharge from the air corps. The family will visit his relatives in Pennsylvania en route home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murphy sent a postcard from Albany, New York, saying what a grand vacation they are having. They are enjoying three weeks away from the plumbing shop, which is being kept going by the senior Murphys.

FRIENDS GATHER AT GET-TO-GETHER

Every once in awhile a group of friends who all have cabins at Palo Verde meet. Sunday they held a get-to-gether at Lynwood park where they enjoyed a picnic and engaged in reminiscing.

From Cypress there were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lamblin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Costa and son Ronnie and daughter Nancy, now of Lynwood, but who are well known here.

Others at the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Monatt of Beaumont; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Memmer of Inglewood; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blanton and C. C. Blanton of Los Angeles, Maude Brown of Long Beach, Tom Moore of Palo Verde and Dorothy Compton of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Yost of Hawthorne, Bertha Higby of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. James of Hawthorne, and Mrs. and Mrs. E. I. Blanton of Huntington Park.

"Gene" Wilkerson, genial advertising manager of the Buena Park News and Cypress Enterprise, continues to be hospitalized at White Memorial. He underwent major surgery last week.

Miss Irene Menger of Atlanta, Georgia, Pentacostal Bible school has been visting Mrs. Mary McBride. Miss Menger goes to South India in September where she has charge of an orphanage for girls.

Popular Young Couple Reveal Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Derril Cardin, 5362 Nelson st., announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Delores Cardin, to Frank Ferreira, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferreira, Sr., 9312 Grindlay. No date has been set for the wedding.

The young couple has a host of friends here. They were both students at Anaheim Union high school and were popular in the younger set.

Pvt. Ferreira is on the east coast, following a leave at home. His family has heard from him, and it is expected that he will be leaving New York for European duty. In the meantime, he writes that he is enjoying the opportunities for sightseeing to the fullest.
